

A NEW REGIONAL PRESIDENT FOR GMNI'S EUROPEAN REGION

ENRIC PAREDES, MANAGING PARTNER OF GPM AUDITORS AND PAREDES ASSOCIATS, APPOINTED LAST MONTH AS PRESIDENT OF GMNI'S EUROPEAN REGION.

After serving as Vice-President for two years, Enric takes over from Søren Larsen. Enric is a member of GMNI's European Executive Committee as well as the International Executive Committee.

After working as an auditor in multi-national auditing companies, in 1990 Enric founded GPM Auditors Associats, based in Catalonia in Spain. GPM Auditors became a member of GMNI in 2013 and both Enric and his partner José Esteve have been active participants in the organisation.

A graduate in economics and auditing, and of the PADE (Senior Business Management Program) from the IESE Business School in Barcelona, Enric is also on the Board of Directors of several companies. He was Girona's delegate at the Col·legi de Censors Jurats de Comptes de Catalunya until 2014. He is a member of Grup 20, the Spanish Association of Accounting and Business Administration (AECA) and of the Catalan Association of Accounting and Management (ACCID). He is a member of the Advisory Council of the Carlemany Forum and the Forum for Continuous Improvement. Enric specialises in company strategic and financial issues.
