

A FURTHER NEW MEMBER FOR GMNI IN CHINA

GMNI is pleased to welcome Prowise CPA in Beijing to its Asia Pacific region, strengthening its presence in China.

Prowise CPA (“Prowise”) was established in March 2010 by Ms Corrine Liu and Ms Nancy Liu, both of whom are ACAs and have more than 20 years of audit and consulting experience. Today Corrine Liu (pictured) is Managing Partner of the firm and, in addition to Nancy Liu, now has three further partners, Jennifer Chen, Mary Zhang and Jack Xie..

The firm’s main office is located in Beijing, in addition to which it has a branch office in Tianjin that provides consulting services.

The majority of the team at Prowise previously worked for the “Big Four” or with top ten local firms, have international qualifications (e.g. ACA, HKICPA, Australia CPA) and extensive professional practice experience. They have a strong international outlook and resources, providing clients high quality, value for money services.

The core services provided by Prowise CPA are:

- Audit
- Finance & Accounting Outsourcing
- Design finance system
- Design & assess the internal control system
- Tax Audit & Tax planning
- Due diligence
- Risk management
- Management consulting service

The firm’s clients, who are spread throughout China, are in industries including real estate, medicine, manufacturing, retail and wholesale, import and export trading, insurance, asset management, etc. Most of the clients are foreign-owned enterprises and private enterprises. Their consulting service clients are listed companies or companies planning to go public. Please visit their website www.prowisecpa.com to find out more.

Corrine Liu will be GMNI’s main contact at Prowise, and she can be contacted at liuzhuoqin@prowisecpa.com

GMNI very much looks forward to working with Corrine, her partners and their team.
